

Lone Star Learning™ Target Reading™

Sixth Grade
R6

MONDAY

At what point does the cliffhanger occur?

TUESDAY

What is the main idea of the story?

WEDNESDAY

The word bewildered in the paragraph is an analogy. What does it mean?

THURSDAY

What is the problem that means the mirror caused misunderstandings?

FRIDAY

Problem: The mirror caused misunderstandings.

Solution: _____

Smart Choices Target Reading Primary

- Lights, Camera, Action!
- Story Wheel
- Fact or Opinion?
- Results Redo
- Where Am I?
- Vary the Verbs!
- Adjective Addition!
- What's the Problem Here?
- Another Word for It
- Character Adjectives
- Make a Diorama
- Hangman
- Partner Discussion
- Question & Answer
- Pairs for Read-a-loud

ANSWER KEY

The Trouble Maker

The climax in the story occurs when the young man looks into the mirror and sees his reflection. He is shocked and afraid because he has never seen himself before.

The main idea of the story is that a young man who is very curious and imaginative decides to make a mirror for himself. He is very proud of his work and shows it to his mother. She is very proud of him and gives him a gift. He is very happy and goes to school. He is very smart and goes to school. He is very smart and goes to school.

Monday: At what point does the cliffhanger occur?

Tuesday: What is the main idea of the story?

Wednesday: The word bewildered in the paragraph is an analogy. What does it mean?

Thursday: What is the problem that means the mirror caused misunderstandings?

Friday: Write the information that the young man should use to solve the problem.

Think Sheet

Name: _____

Monday: (1) Long ago a stranger visited a village in Africa. The people there were so peaceful and giving that he left a gift box with the chief's eldest son. He was a mirror. Having never seen a mirror, the young man looked into it and was shocked and afraid. He was very proud of his work and showed it to his mother. She was very proud of him and gave him a gift. He was very happy and went to school. He was very smart and went to school.

Tuesday: (1) Thinking the reflection in the mirror was his own, the young man was very proud of his work and showed it to his mother. She was very proud of him and gave him a gift. He was very happy and went to school. He was very smart and went to school.

Wednesday: (1) The son took the mirror to his room and looked into it. He was shocked and afraid because he had never seen himself before. He was very proud of his work and showed it to his mother. She was very proud of him and gave him a gift. He was very happy and went to school. He was very smart and went to school.

Thursday: (1) Each time the chief's son said, "He became angry and..."

Friday: (1) I have gotten rid of the trouble all in his hand.

Editing Marks:

- Take it out.
- Add something.
- Add a question mark.
- Insert a comma.
- Add a period.
- Make this a capital letter.
- Circle the word; add the correct spelling.

Elaboration:

Who? What? When? Where? Why? How?

Proofing:

- Capitalization
- Punctuation
- Spelling
- Subject/Verb Agreement
- Fragment
- Run-on

6th Grade
$124.99

Product Code: R6

Note: Please see the back of this display for question samples.

Phone: 806-281-1424

Fax: 806-281-1407

Toll Free: 1-800-575-1424

© 2016 Lone Star Learning

Scan for more info.

LoneStarLearning.com
PO Box 6606 Lubbock, TX 79493

MONDAY

At what point in the story does the climax occur?

SIXTH GRADE

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

Week 1
Monday

TUESDAY

What is the theme of this story?

SIXTH GRADE

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

Week 1
Tuesday

WEDNESDAY

The word bewildered is in paragraph 3. Complete the analogy.
bewildered : confused ::
taunting : _____

SIXTH GRADE

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

Week 1
Wednesday

THURSDAY

What is the root word for mimicked in paragraph 1 that means to copy or imitate?

SIXTH GRADE

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

Week 1
Thursday

FRIDAY

Problem

Solution

The mirror caused misunderstandings.

SIXTH GRADE

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

Week 1
Friday

READING PASSAGE

The Trouble Maker

(Read to find out who the trouble maker is.)

1 Long ago a stranger visited a very remote and simple village in Africa. The people there were so peaceful and giving that he left a gift box with the chief's eldest son. In the box was a mirror. Having never seen a mirror before, the young man looked into it and was astonished to see that another young man was staring back at him. He spoke to the young man, but the young man in the mirror just mimicked him exactly. Thinking that the young man in the mirror was taunting him, he took the mirror to his wife and said, "This man the stranger left is very rude, so I have decided to teach him a lesson. He will be my servant and work in the fields until he learns some manners!"

2 When his wife looked in the mirror, she did not see the young man. Instead, she saw a beautiful young woman. "How can you bring home a young woman?" she wailed. "You already have a wife!" And she began to cry.

3 Bewildered, the young man took the mirror to his mother. "I have been given a young man to help me in the fields, but my wife insists that he is a young woman! Please tell her that isn't so."

4 His mother looked in the mirror and saw an old and very tired woman. "Foolish boy," she said, "can't you see that this old woman can be nothing but a burden?"

SIXTH GRADE, Week 1

© 2015 Lone Star Learning, Ltd.

The Trouble Maker
(Read to find out who the trouble maker is.)

1 Long ago a stranger visited a very remote and simple village in Africa. The people there were so peaceful and giving that he left a gift box with the chief's eldest son. In the box was a mirror. Having never seen a mirror before, the young man looked into it and was astonished to see that another young man was staring back at him. He spoke to the young man, but the young man in the mirror just mimicked him exactly. Thinking that the young man in the mirror was taunting him, he took the mirror to his wife and said, "This man the stranger left is very rude, so I have decided to teach him a lesson. He will be my servant and work in the fields until he learns some manners!"

2 When his wife looked in the mirror, she did not see the young man. Instead, she saw a beautiful young woman. "How can you bring home a young woman?" she wailed. "You already have a wife!" And she began to cry.

3 Bewildered, the young man took the mirror to his mother. "I have been given a young man to help me in the fields, but my wife insists that he is a young woman! Please tell her that isn't so."

4 His mother looked in the mirror and saw an old and very tired woman. "Foolish boy," she said, "can't you see that this old woman can be nothing but a burden?"

In this selection, the climax of the story occurred when _____

A. the young man shattered the mirror.
B. a stranger gave the young man a mirror.
C. the chief demanded that the son send the man in the mirror away.
D. the family came running when the young man said he had sent the man in the mirror away.

Hide Monday Answer

Open Ended Multiple Choice Writing

Also available in:
digital form!

Digital Subscription
1 year: $69.99

Product Code:
English Digital: DR6

Note: Please see the front of this display for for bulletin board example.

Phone: 806-281-1424
Toll Free: 1-800-575-1424

Fax: 806-281-1407
© 2016 Lone Star Learning

Grade 6
LoneStarLearning.com
PO Box 6606 Lubbock, TX 79493